REPUBLICANS ARE CONFIDENT

Chicago Result Called Handwriting On Wall.

Washington, May 5.—John C. Eversman, Secretary of the National Republican Congressional Committee, has returned from a trip to Columbus, Cleveland, Youngstown and Pittsburgh, where he met and conferred with Republican leaders in touch with the political situation in their bailiwicks.

"If one wanted to imitate some old-fashioned Republican enthusiasm one should talk to those men," said Mr. Eversman.

"A year ago the prospect of a political revolution was farthest from their thoughts. Today they are militant and confident that the Democratic party will not carry a single northern state."

"They laugh at the reports sent out from New York that Woodrow Wilson will be a hard man to beat."

"They point to the Chicago municipal election as the handwriting on the wall. It is astonishing how much the Republican victory in Chicago is discussed in other cities."

"And, by the way, whenever any one asserts that local issues rather than protest against Democratic industrial depression were determining factors in that great Republican landslide, consider the wonderful showing made in the so-called industrial wards of the city where the wage-earners, many of foreign birth, live and work. They way these old-time Democratic wards rolled up Republican majorities stunned the Democratic prophets."

"Of course, everybody likes President Wilson personally, but the voters who change the results of elections—and, mind you, that only means five in each voting precinct in the country—do not separate President Wilson from Mr. Bryan. And you are going to hear a great deal about Wilson-Bryanism before the 1916 elections."

UNCLE IS ARRESTED

On Charge That He Attacked Girl, Who Died of Injuries.

Olive Hill, Ky., May 3.—Bob Frazier, of Fleming county, today was arrested and charged with the murder of Stella Kinney, of Pleasant Valley, who died today as a result of an attack last night while she and Frazier were driving toward Pleasant Valley.

Frazier, who is her uncle, was bringing her from Fleming county, where she had been visiting in his home for ten months. Frazier gave the alarm last night and claimed they had been held up and robbed and the girl beaten with a club. However, officers doubted his story, and an investigation resulted in his arrest.

An autopsy showed that the girl was facing maturity.

PAINFUL DEATH IS SUFFERED BY VICTIMS OF GAS WARFARE.

London, May 5.—There has been given out a report on the use of asphyxiating gases by the Germans from Sir John French, Commander-in-chief of the expeditionary force on the continent, which reads:

"The gases employed by the Germans have been ejected from pipes laid into trenches. It has been produced also by the explosion of shells especially manufactured for this purpose."

"German troops who attacked under cover of these gases were provided with especially designed respirators, which were issued in sealed packages to all points on the line. This shows methodical preparation on a large scale."

"A week before the Germans first used this method they announced in their reports that we were making use of asphyxiating gases. At that time there appeared to be no reason for this astounding falsehood. Now it is obvious that it was part of a scheme, and it is further proof of the deliberate nature of the introduction by the Germans of this new and illegal weapon. It shows they recognized its illegality and that they were anxious to forestall neutral and possibly domestic criticisms."

"Since the enemy first made use of this method of covering his advance with a cloud of poisoned air, he has repeated it both in offensive and defensive whenever the wind has been favorable."

"The effect of this poison is not merely disabling or painfully fatal, as has been suggested in the German press. Those victims who do not succumb on the field and who can not be brought into hospitals suffer acutely, and a large proportion of the cases die a painful and lingering death."

"Those who survive are in little better shape, as the injury to their lungs appears to be of a permanent character and reduces them to a condition which points to their being invalids for life. These effects must have been well known to German scientists who devised this new weapon and to the military authorities who sanctioned its use."

"I am of the opinion that the enemy has definitely decided to use these gases as a normal procedure and that protests will be useless."

SNAP SHOTS.

Anyhow, it ought not to take a hot-headed girl very long to dry her hair. Too many highballs will leave you pretty low down.

Another thing we don't understand about physiology is why a man's tongue gets loose when he gets tight. The charity that begins at home frequently becomes so worn out with the task that it falls by the wayside.

Of course it may be wronging the dog, but whenever we see a lady doing around with a poodle in her I reminds us of the old saying: "Two minds with but a thought."

SEES IMPROVEMENT IN MAYSVILLE.

Mr. Frank A. Mannen, formerly a resident of this city, now in the insurance business in Minneapolis, visited Maysville a short time ago, after an absence of five years, and finds much improvement here.

Mr. Harry C. Curran, our fellow-townsmen, has received the following letter from Mr. Mannen:

Minneapolis, May 3, 1915.
Mr. Harry C. Curran,
Maysville, Ky.

Dear Hal: I am dropping you a line to say how much I enjoyed my little while in Maysville. This is the first time I have visited there for five years and the change for the better in the old town is certainly most marked. It seemed to me that Maysville has improved more in the last five years than during the previous thirty-five years. Your well-lighted, paved streets, your sidewalks, the neat and attractive appearance in which the homes and business houses are maintained, the evidence of fresh paint on every side, all indicate a condition of prosperity that is most pleasing. I was much impressed with the development of your loose leaf tobacco industry. It is only right and natural that you should have this business, being in the heart of the great Burley producing section of the United States. However, only a very small part of the profits of the tobacco industry remain in Maysville, and if the manufacture of tobacco could be undertaken there it seems that it should be successful and employ a large amount of skilled labor, resulting greatly to the benefit of your town.

In my opinion the one thing that Maysville needs in order to increase its prosperity is a bridge across the Ohio river. I do not believe you people realize what an enormous commercial benefit this would be. In the first place it would double the trading territory now contiguous, would largely increase your jobbing interests, and make Maysville, with its beautiful surroundings, more accessible from the rich and fertile lands lying immediately north in the Ohio valley. Furthermore, I believe that such a bridge forming the connecting link in a chain of fine highways from the north to the south would make Maysville more or less of a resort for the tourists from the large and prosperous cities of Ohio, particularly automobile tourists. This tourist trade during the summer months is very valuable to any place. The writer was touring through New York by motor two summers ago and at Utica found a splendid hotel costing three quarters of a million dollars. The manager advised me that their profits were largely derived from the automobile tourist trade.

On a bright and beautiful Sunday morning while in Maysville we walked down the West End of town and up Buffalo Trace to the top of Wadsworth Hill, where we had a magnificent view of the hills, the river, the old town and the wonderful valley in which it is situated. There are few places I have seen that compare in natural beauty of location, and it would be a great pleasure to all of the boys who have left there to feel that the old town and its host of hospitable people should gain every possible advantage from its many desirable features.

I heard while there that there was a possibility that the old court house might be wrecked and a new one built on the site. I should deeply regret any such sacrifice. Any place can have a new court house, but few possess and none can erect a building combining the dignified simplicity and architecture with the old and hallowed associations that should endure this old landmark to every native son.

With love to you and your mother, I remain,
Faithfully,
F. A. M.

JAPAN GIVES CHINA FORTY-EIGHT HOURS TO ANSWER.

Tokio, May 5.—At a special meeting of the cabinet yesterday it was decided, according to authoritative information, to send an ultimatum to China, giving her forty-eight hours in which to acquiesce to Japan's demands.

The Japanese consuls in China have been instructed to be in readiness to quit their posts and return home.

Freight rates have increased within the past three days in anticipation of a call by the government for ships for transport purposes. Tokio remains absolutely calm, the universal opinion being that the Japanese progress through China will be in the nature of a "military procession."

It is stated here that President Yuan Shai Kai bases his refusal to yield to Japan upon his determination not to break faith with Germany, China having agreed to Taing Tau to Germany for a number of years. Japan insists that it should have the right to dictate this lease.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

FOUR AUTOS IN PILE

Machines Skid From Wet Pavement Into Ditch—Four Injured.

Cleveland, O., May 5.—Four men were injured and several others had narrow escapes when a series of automobile accidents followed a heavy storm here early Tuesday morning.

E. R. Grasselli, vice president of a chemical company, was injured seriously when his machine skidded on a wet pavement and turned turtle. Sol Bergman, a jeweler; Dr. Harry Spitzer and Samuel Silbert, Police Prosecutor, were injured when a machine in which they were driving from Akron to Cleveland, skidded into the ditch between Hudson and Twinsburg.

Three other machines took to the ditch at the same place, piling up behind each other.

PARK HILL AND WALLINGFORD.

Rev. Godbey conducted services here on Sunday morning and night.

Mr. J. W. Hunter is again suffering with heart trouble, but his condition is not serious and his early recovery is expected.

There is some talk of building a church and the site selected in anticipation seems to meet the approval of every one.

Tobacco plants are very scarce, there being fewer of them this year than for many years past, and some are predicting only half a crop.

J. P. Hartley, the bee man, discovered a bee-hive the other day in a hollow log. He uncovered the hive and obtained thirty pounds of honey.

Emerson McKee, wife and baby passed through here on Sunday morning, and just as they were in front of the Methodist church the mule they were driving became frightened and bolted.

Mrs. McKee jumped with the baby, both escaping injury, and Mr. McKee, soon finding that the animal was beyond his control, also jumped. The mule was found later some distance off, still hitched to the buggy. There was no damage, except a broken kicking strap.

Mr. A. Perkins arrived from Missouri last week and says that Kentucky is good enough for him.

Rev. James H. Howe, of Wedonia, was here last week and purchased a lot of lumber from J. J. Dugan. The J. B. O. U. A. M. of this place, went to Lewisburg last week to organize a lodge.

Beautiful Home For Sale

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson have placed with us for sale their new home on East Second street, in the Sixth Ward. This home is located on a large lot, 72x150 feet, and running back to Williams street. We will not make any attempt to describe this home in detail. It is built of pressed brick, with hardwood floors, basement under the entire house, slate roofing, hot water, furnace, gas all over the house, and fact, is modern and complete! It out, and must be seen to be appreciated. This beautiful home has been admired by all who have seen it. Every Maysvillian is justly such an enterprising citizen, as a result of this property.
